A. Related Person Transactions

For the purposes of this Policy, a "Related Person Transaction" is a transaction, arrangement or relationship (or any series of similar transactions, arrangements or relationships) in which any member of the Partnership Group was, is or will be a participant, the amount involved exceeds $120,000, and any Related Person had, has or will have a direct or indirect material interest (other than where the interest arises only from (a) the Related Person’s position as a director of another entity, (b) the direct or indirect ownership by the Related Person and any other Related Person, in the aggregate, of less than a 10% equity interest in another entity (other than a partnership) or (c) both such position and ownership). For purposes of this Policy, the amount involved with respect to any contract or agreement to which a member of the Partnership Group is a party is the amount reasonably expected to be paid or received by such member of the Partnership Group over the entire term or duration of such contract or agreement.

For purposes of this Policy, a “Related Person” means:

A Related Person Transaction identified as such prior to its consummation or amendment shall be consummated or amended only if the following steps are taken:

1. Prior to entering into the Related Person Transaction (a) the Related Person, (b) the Director, Executive Officer, Nominee or beneficial owner who is an immediate family member of the Related Person, or (c) the business unit or department leader responsible for the potential Related Person Transaction shall provide notice to the Office of the Corporate Secretary of the facts and circumstances of the proposed Related Person Transaction, including: (i) the Related Person's relationship to the Partnership and interest in the transaction; (ii) the material facts of the proposed Related Person Transaction, including the proposed aggregate value of such transaction or, in the case of indebtedness, the amount of principal that would be involved; (iii) the benefits to the Partnership of the proposed Related Person Transaction; (iv) if applicable, the availability of other sources of comparable products or services; and (v) an assessment of whether the proposed terms of the Related Person Transaction are comparable to the terms available to an unrelated third party or to employees generally. In the event the notice is provided to the Office of the Corporate Secretary by someone other than the business unit or department leader responsible for the potential Related Person Transaction, a member of the Office of the Corporate Secretary shall meet with the relevant business unit or department leader to confirm and supplement the information provided in the original notice. The Office of the Corporate Secretary will assess whether the proposed transaction is a Related Person Transaction for purposes of this Policy.
2. If the Office of the Corporate Secretary determines that the proposed transaction is a Related Person Transaction, the proposed Related Person Transaction shall be submitted to the Board for consideration at the next Board meeting or, in those instances in which the Office of the Corporate Secretary, in consultation with the Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the General Partner, determines that it is not practicable or desirable for the Partnership to wait until the next Board meeting, to the Chairman of the General Partner (or by any uninterested member of the Board, if the Related Person Transaction involves the Chairman of the General Partner).

No member of the Board shall participate in any review, consideration or approval of any Related Person Transaction with respect to which such member or any of his or her immediate family members is the Related Person. The Board (or where submitted to the Chairman of the General Partner or other member of the Board, the Chairman of the General Partner or such other Board member) shall approve only those Related Person Transactions that are in, or are not inconsistent with, the best interests of the Partnership and its unitholders, as the Board (or the Chairman of the General Partner or such other member of the Board, as the case may be) determines in good faith. The Board or Chairman of the General Partner or such other member of the Board, as applicable, shall convey the decision to the Chief Legal Officer and Corporate Secretary, who shall convey the decision to the appropriate persons within the Partnership or the General Partner.

4. The Chairman of the General Partner or such other member of the Board, as the case may be, shall report to the Board at the next Board meeting any approval under this Policy pursuant to the authority delegated herein.

E. Ratification Procedures

As and when requested by the Office of the Corporate Secretary, the supervisors of accounts payable, accounts receivable and payroll shall produce reports of any amounts paid or payable to, or received or receivable from, any Related Person, and those reports shall be provided to the Office of the Corporate Secretary to determine if there are any Related Person Transactions that were not previously approved or previously ratified under this Policy.

In the event the Chairman of the General Partner, President and Chief Executive Officer of the General Partner, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the General Partner or Chief Legal Officer and Corporate Secretary becomes aware, as a result of the accounts payable, accounts receivable or payroll reports described above or otherwise, of a Related Person Transaction that has not been previously approved or previously ratified under this Policy:

Based on the conclusions reached, the Board or the Chairman of the General Partner shall evaluate all options including, but not limited to, ratification, amendment or termination of the Related Person Transaction; and
2. If the transaction is completed, the Board or Chairman of the General Partner shall evaluate the transaction, taking into account the same factors described above, to determine if rescission of the transaction is appropriate, and shall request that the General Partner evaluate the Partnership's controls and procedures to ascertain the reason the transaction was not submitted to the Board or Chairman of the General Partner for prior approval and whether any changes to these procedures are recommended.

F. Standing Pre-Approval for Certain Related Person Transactions
